

What is Exit Counseling?

Exit counseling provides important information to prepare you to repay federal student loan(s).

Who does Exit Counseling?

Students who are graduating, are taking less than 6 Credit Hours, or are withdrawing.

It is a federal requirement for students who borrowed Direct Loan Program funds during their college career to complete exit counseling.

Below are the instructions for you to follow through with this requirement.

☆Direct Link to Federal Direct Loan Exit Counseling:

<https://studentaid.gov/app/counselingInstructions.action?counselingType=exit>

or use the following steps:

Use StudentAid.gov to complete the Exit Counseling Requirement:

- Select: Login, use your FSA ID
- Hover over "Loan Repayment"
- Click "Loan Exit Counseling".
- Click "Start" next to the section: "I'm an Undergraduate Student"

You must complete Exit Counseling in order to receive your academic transcripts or diploma!

Use the Manage Loans tab on StudentAid.gov for the following:

- View the status of Federal student loans.
- The amounts and accrued Interest (if any), will be displayed
- How to contact your loan servicers for questions or payments

Your servicer is the organization responsible for managing your Federal Direct Loans

Fill In and Keep for your Records:

Servicer: _____

Phone Number: _____

Save your Login Information!

Concerns or Questions? Contact: SWAU Loan Advisor: Stephanie Campos Phone Number: (817) 202 – 6606 Email: stephanie_c@swau.edu
